

Please keep the 'Do Not Call', esp. New Jersey's version. It is a pleasure to have dinner without annoying calls. And if we want to give families any chance of maintaining their integrity, let's at least give them dinner, bedtime etc. without interruptions from strangers.